ELECT JOHN EGLOFF SHERIFF; HUGH WHITE, GOVERNOR

Observations..

By the Editor

A great big show was put on at Henderson Point last Friday to tell the world that work was about to start on the "Colossal Monument to Political Indifference" which will span the Bay of St. Louis. This was a political show of the State Highway Department. Just something to seek publicity prior to the election Tuesday. Who ever heard of starting work on a project of this size without any of the equipment on hand? The whole affair leaned to the ridiculous. An old pine limb was brought up on the beach and the Superintendent of construction for Merritt, Chapman and Scott, took an ax and appeared to be driving it in the ground for the photographers to take the picture of the Highway Commissioner and the Harrison County officials. Hancock County officials, who said anything about them. They were just completely ignored. This is strictly a Harrison County Bridge. Guess the Bay St. Louis end is going to be suspended in the air. Hancock County was given the merry-go-round in the opening ceremonies as they were given it in the location of the bridge. But, apparently the folks like it.

The election is now history. Our batting average overall was not too bad. Hugh White was named Governor, being the second man in the history of the State named for a second term as Governor. We do not think Mississippians have made a mistake in their selection. Mississippi will continue to move forward under Hugh White; and who knows, perhaps Hancock County may receive some benefits from his administration. It would not be amiss for the folks in the County to try and get together, working with a common purpose in mind to bring some type of payroll into Hancock County. Since the election is over, we certainly hope that the attitude of having political differences become personal differences will become a thing of the past and that all hands will be joined to make this a bigger and better Hancock County. And bear in mind, only a united effort will ever accomplish this purpose.

The polio scare, of course, is having its effect in Hancock County. Rumors have been rampant as to the great number of cases we have had in the County. Wish we could say that there were none; but we are particularly fortunate, perhaps, with only two cases in the area. Our heart goes out to those who have been afflicted with this dreaded disease, and we think we are joined by many, many others in our prayers for the complete recovery of those two children who have been stricken.

Have you been down Main street lately, and have you noticed the new offices of the Hancock Insurance Agency? Quite swanky; it adds new life to a spot that has had closed doors since the post-office was moved from this location. Of course, we could not overlook mentioning that the office is adorned with the pleasing personalities of Mrs. Margaret Shadoin as manager, and Miss Norma Collier as Secretary. The officials of the agency are to be commended for this forward move.

LIPTON TEAM GETS SEND-OFF

Jack Gordon's win in the final elimination race Saturday placed him as fourth man on the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club team which will compete in the Sir Thomas Lipton Cup Series to be held at Panama City, Florida, September 1-3.

First place in the home series went to H. A. Thompson who rolled up a total of 3750 points; Louis Koerner took second position with 3250; J. E. Erwin and Jack Gordon tied with a total of 3000 for the last two positions on the team.

Of top interest in the Gulf waters, the Lipton Cup series includes representatives from all the clubs of the Gulf Yachting Association.

The local team which was honored with a farewell dinner last night leaves for Panama City today.

Preceding the convention the Executive Council of the Fraternity will conduct the Fraternity's National School for Chapter Officers at the Gulf Coast Military Academy on August 31, September 1 and 2.

On September 3 the National and Province Officers and Delegates to the convention will be entertained at an all day open house at Darwood on the Jourdan, the home of Dr. Emmett Lee Irwin, who was Knight Commander of Kappa Alpha from 1934 to 1940. All Kappa Alphas with their wives are invited.

The present Knight Commander is Mr. W. Elliott Dunwoody, of Macon, Georgia. The Executive Secretary is Mr. Ranson H. Bassett of Louisville, Kentucky. Mr. Robert Sanders of Kosciusko and Jackson, Mississippi, is a counselor for the Fraternity.

The gathering at DARWOOD, on September 3 will be welcomed by Mayor Warren Carver of the Bay and Mr. Howard LeTissier, President of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

Breaks Leg

Bert Anderson, who is employed by Eastern Airlines in New Orleans, suffered a broken leg Sunday. The accident occurred as he was diving off the Waveland pier. Anderson was visiting at the Dupres' summer home in Waveland.

The injured man was taken to Kings Daughters hospital, where his leg was put in a cast, by Fahey's ambulance.

He was later transferred to Toure Infirmary.

The Bay St. Louis Public Schools will open on August 31 at 9:00 a. m. for classification and assignment of books. All students are urged to be present on this date. Students entering school for the first year will be required to present a birth certificate showing that they will be six years old by December 1.

There will be two objectives other than regular academic work at the Bay St. Louis schools. One of these will be a complete physical checkup program for all students and this will be done in cooperation with the county health department. The other objective is a complete testing program for all students in the public school. This testing program will be under the supervision of Dr. McKee, a member of the faculty of Mississippi Southern College. Our local P. T. A. is being asked to assist in this testing program.

The high school department of the Bay St. Louis Public Schools in preparation for this, is making preparations for an evaluation by the Southern Association officials who will check high schools in this state. The faculty spent approximately two months study on this before the close of last year's session.

All buildings in the public school system have undergone extensive repair and improvement for the opening of this year's session.

Three new teachers have been added to the faculty at Bay High school this year. Mr. James F. Brent will have charge of the band and choral work. Miss Georgia Patricia Winters will teach arithmetic and science in the junior high school. Miss Winters is a recent graduate of Northwestern College in Natchitoches, Louisiana. Mrs. Grace N. Wall of Hickory, Mississippi, will be the primary teacher succeeding Miss Carrie Davis. Mrs. Wall comes to the public school system highly recommended as a primary teacher having taught primary work in the Hickory school for the past seven years.

James F. Brent, a graduate of the University of Mississippi with a Master of Education degree, has been named music director for Bay High for the 1951-1952 term. S. J. Ingram, Superintendent of Public Schools, announced.

Brent, who received his Bachelor of Music degree from Ole Miss in August 1950, is a native of Biloxi. He was commissioned an Ensign with the U. S. Navy January 21, 1945, and was released from active duty June 16, 1946. He was given a permanent appointment to Lieutenant (jg) U. S. N. R., February 1, 1947.

The new director is a member of the Woodmen of the World, Rushing Camp, No. 839 of Biloxi; Kappa Kappa Psi, National Honorary Band Fraternity, Beta Beta Chapter of which he served as secretary; he was treasurer of the University Band from 1949-1950, and was a member of the bands at Biloxi high school and Perkins Junior college. He is also a member of T. S. Gauthier Lodge No. 33 F and A Masons.

Brent is a graduate of Biloxi high school in the class of 1944; he attended Perkins Junior college and Tulane university where he was a member of V-12, Navy college training program. He entered the University of Mississippi in 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. Brent are presently residing on City Park avenue.

In one of the most closely contested political elections in the history of the state, Hugh White, who served as governor from 1936-40, was elected for his second time to the state's highest post. However in Hancock County, White fell behind his opponent, Paul Johnson, by more than 1,000 votes at the final tally. Mississippi's lieutenant governor is Carroll Gartin who won out over Jimmy Arrington by 106,000 votes. Hancock County cast its vote nearly 2-1 for Gartin.

MARINE LIFE RESEARCHER SPEAKS AT ROTARY MEETING

Wilson Moore's Father Dies At Hattiesburg Mon.

Benjamin Dowd Moore Sr., pioneer business man and former mayor of Hattiesburg, died at Hattiesburg at the age of 86 Monday.

He was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late Mayor T. E. Batson and served for several months as mayor of Hattiesburg in 1922. He was elected to a full term in 1924 and served from 1925 to 1929. Moore was known as a philanthropist and a sportsman. He was a member of the Baptist church.

Funeral services were held Tuesday. Burial was in Highland Park cemetery.

Survivors include two sons, Benjamin Dowd Jr., of Hattiesburg and Wilson of Bay St. Louis; and a daughter, Mrs. Mary Ann Martin, of Hattiesburg.

Brother Gerald Is Transferred

Last minute faculty changes were announced by Brother Celsus, president of St. Stanislaus.

Brother Gerald, last year's vice president at S. S. C. and previously named as principal for the coming year, has been transferred to St. Aloysius in New Orleans. Brother William, one-time president of the local school, will succeed Brother Gerald in the principal's position. Brother Louis, who served last year in New Orleans, has also been transferred to St. Stanislaus.

Dr. R. Lee Caylor, head of the science department at Delta State Teachers College, was guest speaker at the Rotary Club meeting this week. Dr. Caylor spoke on the founding and development of the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory at Ocean Springs.

In 1946 the Mississippi Academy of Science voted to establish a laboratory at Magnolia State Park. Governor Wright backed this move and in September of 1947 the purchase of land for the research laboratory was made. The Legislature allots $5,000 per year to the maintenance of this research. In the summer of 1948 the first session was opened with 28 students enrolled and two instructors.

The institute has done much work with the Seafood Commission. Its research has aided the commission, especially with its system problems. A new building will be completed within the next 60 days in which special research will be carried on for the Seafood Commission.

The foundation is now composed of two dormitories, three laboratories, a dining hall and other small structures. Dr. Caylor stated that this year's class was composed of 82 students with 300 to 400 research workers visiting throughout the summer.

Dr. Caylor said that the principle of the organization is based on research and instruction. Two courses are being taught at the present time. Fishes of the Gulf and Marine Zoology. Besides the instruction, there were conferences on aquatic life. The Gulf Coast Laboratory will close this year's season Saturday.

DEFENSE BOND DRIVE TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 3

Leo G. Ford, Chairman Hancock County Defense Bonds Committee, announced today the Nation's first Defense Bond Drive opens on Labor Day, September 3, and extends through October 27. This drive is to "step-up" the sustained purchasing of Defense Bonds by individuals in every city and community in America.

Mr. Ford and his committee are confident the people of Hancock County will respond in 1951 as they responded in 1941.

To millions of Americans who are asking "What can I do to help in the defense mobilization of my country," the answer: "Buy Defense Bonds, help sell them to others."

DEFENSE TODAY IS EVERYBODY'S JOB.

Library Asks For Contributions To Meet Fund Quota

The total amount of money collected through the Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library Day was $264.30, which is only a shade better than fifty per cent of the amount the library hoped to get.

The library appreciates what the friends of the library have done, but it was hoped that the contributions might reach the $500 mark.

It is only once a year that the library asks for a donation from the public, and it is hoped that the goal may be reached before long. The library will appreciate any donation, however small.

Clarence Kranz Dies August 28

Clarence Paul Kranz, 53 year-old painting contractor, well known along the coast, died Tuesday afternoon at his home at Long Beach. He was born in New Orleans, but had lived at Long Beach 51 years.

He is survived by his widow, who is the former Alma Nease, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hermogene Nease of Bay St. Louis; a daughter, Mrs. Berwyn Kunz, Long Beach; five brothers, Albert, Alvin Henry, Herbert and Charles Kranz, and a sister, Mrs. Lucille Klein, residents of Long Beach.

Funeral services were held from Riemann's Chapel, Gulfport Thursday afternoon. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

Hold Ceremonies At Site Of Proposed Bridge

A stake was driven Friday, August 24, at Henderson Point to mark the formal opening of construction on a $6,061,433 toll bridge across the Bay of St. Louis. Nearly two miles in length, the new bridge will touch land on the Bay St. Louis side, about 2,000 feet north of the present span. Construction of the bridge began approximately 1,000 feet north of the hazardous wooden structure on the Merritt, Chapman and Scott, New York contractors, drove the miniature piling to officially start the work on the

Hancock County dignitaries among the official guests at the opening ceremony were Commissioners Sylvan Ladner and C. J. Glover, and Beat Five Supervisor Ed. P. Ortte. Mayor Warren Carver was out of town at the time. John D. Smith, southern district highway commissioner, stated that traffic congestion along the coast has become a serious problem. He said that the highway traffic crossing the bridge has increased from 4,000 vehicles at the close of World War II to 6,000 daily at the present time. State Senator R. B. Meadows, author of the bridge bill, told of his fight to get a bridge constructed as far back as 1949. Dan Russell, Jr., then president of the Coast Council of the Chamber of Commerce, and State Representative Reece Bickelstaff of Gulfport also fought for the authorization of a new bridge.

The 1950 Legislature authorized the building of the bridge, but the state would not make a special appropriation to build it. Therefore, the bridge supporters were forced to accept the provisions for issuance of bonds and for those bonds to be retired by toll collections from the bridge. When all the bonds are retired, the span is to be operated as a free public service.

There has been much opposition to the erection of the bridge 2,000 feet north of the present site at Bay St. Louis. The opposing faction was made up chiefly of business men on the present highway and residents of the area where the new approaches to the bridge will be constructed. The new highway will supposedly detract from the present one slightly east of the west city limits.

The erection of a new bridge has practically become a "must" because of the rising danger of the present Bay span. Repairs were recently completed on the bridge after the fifth fire in ten years destroyed much of the walkway and did damage to several of the piers.

Highway Commissioner Smith gave three reasons a year ago why the Bay bridge cannot remain in its present location. The approaches to the bridge on the Henderson Point side form a sharp curve which should be removed; the highway department does not build roads by schools—the Bay St. Louis High School is located on Highway 90; and the Bay St. Louis water tanks and fire sta-

Education-- The Path To Progress

Summer vacation is about over and the youth of America is preparing to return to school. Both gloom and cheer will be a part of every student's emotions on that first day of classes; and as much as a boy or girl might fear the "tragedies" of the coming school year, there is always a deep satisfaction in returning a step higher along the stairway of learning.

Education is not only work, but also team work—getting along with others; not only discipline, but self-discipline.

As the days fly by, the student loses those excited feelings and settles down serenely to the daily routine. Indeed, gone is vacation and here are teachers, text books and tests. But there is more to think about than just the shackles of books and the loss of vacation's fun-filled three months. At stake is progress!

The "back to school" theme is typical of the trend of physical life. Typical because it represents progress. The body grows on food; similarly the mind grows on education and practical experience. In the school, the student obtains education and a certain amount of experience, which is gathered all through life. Education without knowledge is truly a useless thing, but knowledge without education is pitiful in this modern world. Today, more than ever, a sound education is essential in obtaining and holding a good job.

In this time of national and international peril, it is wise to remember the belief of Edmund Burke—that education is the chief defense of nations. At the present time, a war for the minds of men is being waged by the United Nations and the forces of Communism. The former hopes to accomplish its objective through the education of the individual, the latter through the ignorance of the masses.

To those who think that formal education is unnecessary, and that life will be much easier when the studying is finished, it can only be said that elementary, secondary and even higher schools of education combine to become only a foundation—a primer grade of life's hard school. Yet, without this foundation, there can be no road built to true success.

Citizens of Waveland held a public meeting at their town hall Sunday afternoon. The object of their assembly was to discuss the situation caused along the beach and front road by the recent storm. The meeting was composed of property owners.

Mayor L. H. Fairchild was elected chairman and Jules Mazerat, secretary. Before adjournment, a committee was appointed to investigate and secure the financial resources and expenses of the municipality, to report at the next meeting to be called by the chair.

—Thieves made an unsuccessful attempt at robbery at the Bay Mercantile company Wednesday night. They broke open a side window which was discovered by a party of young people returning home from a beach party.

Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian will be face to face with the stern reality of the traffic problem whenever a perfected system of roads and ferries make a dependable all year route, pleasant and time-saving, between New Orleans and the Gulf Coast.

Traffic jams, and near-jams are not infrequent now at the Bay St. Louis ferry driveway, and should traffic be increased to two or three times its present volume, some restricting measures and continual watchfulness would be necessary to keep automobiles moving with a minimum of delay and a maximum of safety.

Past and reckless driving, the operation of cars by children, and the lack of control have caused too many accidents in the coast section already. The plan of letting every motorist take care of himself has been weighed and found wanting.

It is hoped that the Mississippi Coast Club, from the deliberations of its directors and their interchange of ideas with the committees from the coast's splendid service organizations, may evolve a plan which will make safety paramount in coast motoring.

Robbing Peter

Though "Thou shalt not steal" is one of the Ten Commandments, "robbing Peter to pay Paul" has long been a popular form of theft.

As long as Paul covets the property of Peter, Paul is tempted to take it away from him, by fair means or foul, if he is not closely watched.

To protect Peter from Paul governments are constituted and laws enacted. Property rights have long been legally established and the police power of the community and the state organized to keep one man from preying upon another. The burglar and robber are apprehended and punished and the forger and defrauder are hauled before the bar of justice to pay their debts to society.

But what the individual cannot do, legally, government does without restraint. What the individual is prohibited from doing with gun and bullets, the Federal Government manages to do with an iniquitous tax and ballots. As much as 90 percent of one's earnings may be taken in the form of Income Taxes, without Peter's consent, and distributed in the form of pap to greedy Pauls by extravagant Uncle Sam.

Though Peter cannot be robbed to pay Paul, individually, thousands of Peters are robbed, in the aggregate, by the government to pay thousands of parasitic Pauls.

State Socialism - "from each according to his ability and to each according to his needs" - is always achieved by some slick subterfuge. In England it's the Nationalization of Industry, in America the Welfare State. England confiscates privately owned industries, in the USA we tax ourselves into Socialism. We rob Peters to pay Pauls to tie the hands of free enterprise and undermine our profit-and-loss-system. You can rob Peter to pay Paul until Peter is bankrupt.

Nothing is so much needed in this land of the free and home of the brave as a revival of the spirit of fair play. Many a nation has become impoverished by "soaking the rich," for when scheming men destroy the incentive of profit they kill the urge produce. Our prosperity is builded upon industry and economy, upon honesty and justice. Under the American way of life it was never intended that Paul should rob Peter. Under the American system it was intended that both Paul and Peter produce.

Jackson County's land area and less than half its population, has developed in the last few years into the dairy center of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Residents of this county consume more than 5,000 gallons of milk produced here. This is about 60 percent of the total production of 73 dairies in the county.

The movement to organize the co-operative, which began more than three years ago and which did not get underway until last May, has developed into a major enterprise, paying the dairymen $18,000 monthly and employing 14 people in the plant with a payroll of $2,500 monthly.

Plan Meetings To Complete 4-H Foundation Drive

State College, Miss. — Ten area meetings to plan completion of the $100,000 Mississippi 4-H Foundation Drive by the end of this year will be held September 3-7, according to Les M. Taylor, of Jackson, vice-president Mississippi Power and Light Company, and president of the State 4-H Advisory Council.

Schedule for meetings twice daily is September 3, Jackson, 10 a.m. at Farmers Central Market, Brookhaven, 3 p.m. at City Hall, September 4, Ocean Springs, 10 a.m. at 4-H Training Center, Hattiesburg, 3:30 p.m. at YWCA; September 5, Meridian, 9:30 a.m. at Court House, State College, 3 p.m. in Extension Conference Room, September 6, Tupelo, 10 a.m. at Court House, 3 p.m. at Sardis; September 7, Clarksdale, 9:30 a.m. at Civic Center, Greenville, 3 p.m. in Home Agent's office.

Invited to attend the meeting most convenient are officers and other interested members of County 4-H Advisory Councils, members of the State 4-H Advisory Council, and district and county Agricultural Extension Service workers.

Besides planning further fund raising where counties have not met their assigned goals, the meetings will aim at strengthening the State and County 4-H Advisory Council program, stated R. O. Monosmith, Extension state 4-H Club leader.

The 4-H Foundation's current project is helping finance construction of three training centers to meet the needs of Mississippi's more than 103,000 4-H Club boys and girls. Twelve counties have reached their quotas in the fund drive and 67 have made contributions.

Through the combined effort of the 4-H Club members, themselves, Home Demonstration Clubs and as appropriation from the Legislature, all three centers served a limited number of campers this summer, Mr. Monosmith said.

Capacity of the Ocean Springs Center is 200 campers, while the one at Sardis Lake can accommodate 150. The Flora Parrish 4-H Center, near Canton, for Negroes can care for 150. When enough cabins are built and other facilities provided, capacity of each center will be 300 campers.

With the camping season not quite over, use of the training centers has been Sardis Lake, 1,260 campers from 22 counties; Ocean Springs, 1,107 campers from 16 counties; and Flora Parrish, 714 campers from 14 counties, Mr. Monosmith reported.

Attending all 10 area meetings to assist with the program will be Mr. Taylor, Mr. Monosmith, Duke Dvasi, district manager of United Gas Pipe Line Company, and chairman of the Mississippi 4-H Foundation, Inc.; M. S. Shaw, associate Extension director; Miss Earle Gaddis, special assistant to the Extension state home demonstration agent; and L. O. Palmer, associate state 4-H Club leader.

O P S NEWS

DRIVE TO ENFORCE CATTLE CEILING LAUNCHED BY OPS

The Jackson District OPS office has received notice from Washington that a nationwide campaign to enforce cattle ceiling prices will start at once. A large part of the Office of Price Stabilization enforcement staff will concentrate on this task and meat specialists of the District and Regional Offices will assist. The Justice Department will also cooperate.

"Since we are no longer able to channel meat into normal outlets through the slaughter quota system, which was left out of the amended Defense Production Act, there are growing indications of maldistribution of beef supplies," OPS officials said. "This situation puts a strain on legal prices and threatens to move the available supply into fewer areas where higher and illegal prices may be obtainable. There are indications that ceiling price violators are outbidding legitimate slaughterers. As a result, honest packers in the absence of slaughter quotas, find it difficult to get cattle at the legal prices, and they are being forced to reduce their cattle purchases substantially below normal volume."

OPS is making a check of slaughter records, of price violations and is having a meeting with officials of the Industry Advisory Committee of beef slaughterers to consider ways and means to meet the problem. An overriding ceiling for cattle and possible lower freight allowance to Eastern and far Western markets are among measures being considered, the District OPS office is advised.

GROCERY MARKUP SURVEY
The Office of Price Stabilization is planning a nationwide survey of wholesale and retail grocery price markups with the view of revising present markups to reflect cost changes and the new requirements of the Defense Production Act amendment of 1951.

The Jackson District OPS Office explained that should the survey indicate that the present markups are either too high or too low, the Regulations CPR 14, 15 and 16 would be promptly revised to reflect the results of the study. The survey will also determine the need for establishing margins for non-food items handled mainly by food dealers, such as household supplies, OPS said.

SELLING THE STUFF?
Do you plan on selling your old Stutz Bearcat or getting rid of '08 Winton. Six Uncle Tom left automobiles? In either case, there is no ceiling price provided your car is more than 25 years old.

Because antique cars do not enter into the cost of living or cost of defense, the Office of Price Stabilization has added such vehicles to the list of products exempted from price controls. However, most used cars of the type bought for personal needs ceiling prices are in effect. These prices are based on the used car evaluations published in standard and officially accepted automobile price guide books.

Mississippi business people needing information relative to ceiling price regulations should contact the District OPS Office, 126 East Amite Street Telephone 5-9351, in Jackson.

To The Voters of Hancock County

I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the splendid vote you gave me to elect me to the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector. I am grateful to all of my friends for their support.

JOHN A. EGLOFF

To The Voters Of Beat 5 Ed P. Ortte Expresses Gratitude

I sincerely wish to express my deep appreciation to the true friends who voted for me in the 2nd Primary. Truly, you good folks will never know just how greatly I feel towards you. Please, always remember me as your friend and as one who wishes each and everyone of you the very best of health and prosperity.

I tried to serve you as best I could, under the burden of the hurricane's handicap, which hung very heavy on my shoulders throughout the entire last four years.

I ask you to please co-operate with my successor and help him make Beat 5 one of the best districts in the State of Mississippi.

To those who did not vote for me, I assure you I hold no ill feelings. I only hope my successor proves his worthiness for the support you gave him. I am certain he will even exceed the confidence you have placed in him.

Sincerely your friend,

State Releases Disease Report

Felix J. Underwood, executive officer for the Mississippi State Board of Health, reports that polio still has the highest rate of victims of all diseases in the state. In a two week period ending August 17, poliomyelitis cases numbered 68.

Other disease cases reported were three cases of diphtheria, four of meningococcus meningitis, seven of typhoid fever, two of scarlet fever, four of undulant fever, two of typhus fever and 49 cases of pulmonary tuberculosis.

Polio Cases Jump

As of August 27, 309 polio cases have been reported in Mississippi. This is 108 more than on the same date last year.

V. T. Anthony, state director of the national infantile paralysis foundation, said that 20 new cases were reported Monday alone. Sunflower, hardest-hit county in the state, reports from 19 to 20 new cases, with a total of 76 for the year.

According to Anthony, the outbreak is the worst in state history, worst than last year's epidemic rate. Fifty-eight of the state's 82 counties have reported at least one case. No figures were available on the number of deaths this year resulting from polio.

Third highest polio rate is seen in Harrison County with 24 cases. Hancock County has only two reported cases.

The Jackson District OPS Office explained that should the survey indicate that the present markups are either too high or too low, the Regulations CPR 14, 15 and 16 would be promptly revised to reflect the results of the study. The survey will also determine the need for establishing margins for non-food items handled mainly by food dealers, such as household supplies, OPS said.

It is hoped that all farms and farm families will take part in this Review, Mr. Lee added.

Farms which provide the main source of income for a family include probably 98 percent of the farm units in the United States. These do much to demonstrate the ways of American Democracy to the rest of the world, Mr. Lee continued.

Agencies to be studied are Cooperative Extension Service, Production and Marketing Administration, Soil Conservation Service, Farmers Home Administration, Rural Electrification Administration, Forest Service, Farm Credit Administration, Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, Commodity Exchange Authority, Agricultural Research Administration, Bureau of Agricultural Economics and Office of Information.

The Review will give farmers a chance to become better acquainted with the many Government services for them.

Farms which provide the main source of income for a family include probably 98 percent of the farm units in the United States. These do much to demonstrate the ways of American Democracy to the rest of the world, Mr. Lee continued.

Agencies to be studied are Cooperative Extension Service, Production and Marketing Administration, Soil Conservation Service, Farmers Home Administration, Rural Electrification Administration, Forest Service, Farm Credit Administration, Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, Commodity Exchange Authority, Agricultural Research Administration, Bureau of Agricultural Economics and Office of Information.

The Review will give farmers a chance to become better acquainted with the many Government services for them.

Community leaders for the Farm Policy Review were selected Thursday, August 30, and dates and places of the various community meetings were set.
